Dion Drummond - Aboriginal dance performance Wednesday 27 June 2018

30/5/18

Dear Parents and Carers,

Florey Primary School is very pleased to be able to bring Dion Drummond to our school in the lead up to NAIDOC week. NAIDOC week celebrations are held across Australia each July to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. NAIDOC is celebrated not only in Indigenous communities, but by Australians from all walks of life.

Dion is one of Australia's most experienced Indigenous performers, covering both Mainland and Islander culture as a dancer, singer and storyteller. In his school visits, Dion shares tales and artefacts from his cultures, teaching students about the different traditions of both Torres Strait Island and Aboriginal storytelling, song and dance. Students participate in learning some of the language, including songs, as well as a look at the skills of Indigenous dances.

The school has elected to subsidise the cost of the performance to encourage all children to attend.

The cost is $2 per child.

It is customary for the school to request a financial contribution towards meeting the cost of your child's participation in this performance. The school has made every effort to keep costs for this activity at a reasonable level. The school has a student support fund to provide financial assistance for students where parents are unable to make the requested contribution. Please speak to Bri Brockman at the Front Office or Felicity Bruce, the Principal, if you require assistance.
